

Santa Claus, in Person, Will Arrive For A Visit in Narberth Dec. 20

Santa Claus is coming to town. He'll arrive in Narberth on December 20, it was announced by the Narberth Business Council after its meeting Monday night.

The exact hour of the jolly old gentleman's arrival will be announced beforehand over the loudspeakers which will be set up in the Borough's business district during the Christmas season.

His mode of travel has not yet been determined. He may come by car, he may come by sleigh—or he might arrive on the Paoli Local. When he gets here, he'll ride around town for a little while, just to pay his respects to the place, and will then hold court on Station Circle, where all the youngsters of the Borough are invited to gather for a visit with him.

He'll have candy and favors for his visitors, too, thanks to the efforts of the Business Council's Christmas committee and the generosity of Borough merchants. An order for 3000 lollipops was placed this week, as a starter.

Robert M. Wilson, Realty Executive, Succumbs at 57

Narberth Resident Was Active in Civic Affairs, Lived in Boro 24 Years

Robert M. Wilson, a vice president and the treasurer of Albert M. Greenfield and Co., died suddenly Sunday at his home, 17 Shirley Rd., Narberth. He was 57.

A Narberth resident for 24 years, Mr. Wilson served last year as president of the Philadelphia Real Estate Board. He also was vice president of the Benjamin Franklin

ROBERT M. WILSON

Hotel and a member of the Lower Merion Township Board of Zoning Adjustment.

Born in Milton, Vt., Mr. Wilson began his business career in 1912. While serving as a finance secretary he attended the Evening School at the University of Pennsylvania, graduating in 1915.

During the First World War he was an ensign in the Naval Reserve. He later was treasurer of the Quaker City Corp. He joined the Greenfield firm in 1921.

He was a member of the vestry of St. Asaph's Church, Bala-Cynwyd, and a Mason.

Active in Civic Affairs

Widely known in civic fields, Mr. Wilson was also a former vice-president of the Pennsylvania Real Estate Association and a past president of the Optimist Club. He was a member of the Philadelphia Country Club, the Midway Club and the American Legion.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sarah Brown Wilson; two sisters, Mrs. Dorothy W. Barth, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Mary W. Jennings, of Cortland, N. Y.; and a nephew, Howard Biddle, III, of Narberth.

Services were held Wednesday afternoon at St. Asaph's Church. Interment was in St. Asaph's Churchyard.

Parents Organize New Study Group

Mrs. Allen Smith Elected President

Parents of children attending the Wynnewood Road School organized the Wynnewood Parent Study Group Tuesday evening with 125 present at a meeting held in the school.

Officers were elected and the group's constitution ratified.

The group, nucleus of a potential membership of about 500, is the first such group to be formed in the Wynnewood Road School.

Mrs. Allen Smith, 1313 Wynnewood Rd., Wynnewood, was elected president; Mrs. Harrison Houser, vice president; Mrs. Martin White, recording secretary; Mrs. Victor Digilio, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Maurice Roux, treasurer.

This group will serve for a one-year term ending at the close of the school year in June. The second group of officers will be elected the following Fall.

The constitution as ratified states as the purpose of the organization, "to study the needs and development of elementary school age children in the community with special attention to their welfare in the home and school." The constitution also states that "anyone interested in the purpose..." of the group is eligible for membership.

The constitution was drawn up by Mrs. R. D. Kreitzer and Mrs. Houser following a meeting of a steering committee last January. Mrs. Smith served as chairman of that committee.

On Wednesday Mrs. White announced the appointment of the first two committee chairmen who will serve for the year. They are Mrs. Emory Frank Stover, program chairman, and Mrs. William Jeffers, chairman of publicity.

Present at the meeting Tuesday evening was Burns Best, Wynnewood Road School principal.

A meeting of the newly elected board to plan season programs will be held Tuesday evening, November 30, at Mrs. White's home. Preliminary plans call for a series of teas to be given at the homes of members during the year.

Just for the Record

Odd, isn't it, that Narberth has no civic association? There are such wonderful potentialities in this cozy little town and yet it drags along, with little or no community spirit.

Take Christmas time, for instance. If it weren't for a few unselfish men and women in the Narberth Business Council, that most important holiday would pass without official community recognition. Only because the Business Council acts as both a merchants' association and a civic body does the borough come to life in the Yule season. Many merchants donate time and money to insure decorations and a little Christmas spirit for the town.

Just no sense of humor... The lady paid her parking fine at Borough Hall. One of those miserable meter tickets, of course. As she turned to leave, a Borough policeman who happened to be in the office said cheerfully: "I'll be seeing you again soon." Eyes snapping with indignation, the lady turned on him. "Oh no you won't!" she blazed—and founced out. Maybe those tickets do have some effect after all.

5 L. M. Regulars On Sick List for Radnor Battle

10,000 Will Watch Renewal of Series; Trophy at Stake

By BOB JOHNSTON

Whatever edge Lower Merion might have held for Saturday's 52d football meeting with Radnor—and the "superiority" existed only on paper—disappeared like snow before a blazing noonday sun yesterday.

Sadly, as Lower Merion got in its finishing kicks for the Villanova encounter expected to be witnessed by more than 10,000, Coach Dick Matis made known that five L. M. regulars were either ailing or injured. Of the five, two are half-backs.

Callahan, Wilson Out

At least two who nominally are starters, Center Bob Callahan and Halfback Charlie Wilson, aren't expected to don a uniform. Callahan suffered a shoulder separation as Lower Merion lost to Chester High last Saturday, 7-6. Halfback Charlie Wilson pulled up with a bad ankle and as late as Wednesday was still hobbling forlornly around.

Tom Sullivan, a senior, will fill in for Callahan, while Charlie McQuiston is slated to take Wilson's place at left half. Also on the line, the spectacular halfback and hue, the spectacular halfback and State javelin champion; Bob Gerhart, guard, and Fullback Bill Harrell.

Gallagher, after successfully being halted by a sprained ankle and charley-horse, limped in with a bad knee in the Chester clash. If he isn't up to par by game time, Frank Kelly will take over. Gerhart, like Callahan, had a gimpy knee, and Bill Shupert was being groomed to take his place, although the latter suffered a head injury in the last quarter of that bruising battle at Chester.

Harrall Also Ailing

Adding to Mattis' many woes, Bill Harrall, whose battering-ram running has featured for the Merionites all season, missed practice early in the week because of illness. In the event he isn't fit, Charlie Carter will step in.

Lower Merion's revamped lineup thus would list Bill Buck and Bill Ryder on the ends; Tom Muench and Hal Lampe, tackles; Bob Gerhart (or Shupert) and Don Shaver at guards; Sullivan, center; Joe Callahan, quarterback; McQuiston and Gallagher (or Kelly) at the halves, and Harrall (or Carter) at fullback.

Mattis, in the face of mounting injuries, moaned that "things look awful bad"—and apparently this time, at least, with good cause. "Radnor has a good team this year," he added. "It looks like their turn to win."

Rally Friday Night

Meanwhile, Vincent V. Pearce, L. M. athletic director, completed plans for the Merionites' traditioned pre-game rallies from a sick bed, Tuesday. Lower Merion students will stage a final pep rally in Downs Gymnasium Friday afternoon at 2, followed by a bonfire for team followers on Pennypacker Field beginning at 7:30 that evening. Players and coaches will speak. A sendoff for the team will be staged in front of the Ardmore gymnasium Saturday at noon, Pearce said.

Lower Merion holds a 22-20 edge in the series, one of the oldest in the nation. The Merionites have prevailed over the past three years (by 27-0 in 1945, 51-7 in 1946 and 27-0 last year). Nine games have ended in ties, eight by 0 to 0.

Over the season, Lower Merion holds only a slight advantage, compiling six triumphs against

Business Council Nominates Burke For Reelection

Report on Findings Of Survey Committee Again Postponed

Roger Burke was nominated without opposition Monday night to succeed himself as president of the Narberth Business Council.

Others named by the nominating committee for Council office during 1949 are:

Richard Gillis, vice president; Cele Conway, secretary; Dr. Joseph Weissman, treasurer.

Five directors were also nominated. They are: Charles Sauerbrei, Robert Hobson, Howard Cotter, F. P. Carter, Jr., and Walter K. Schaeffer.

The Council's meeting was moved up to last Monday for the purpose of hearing a report on results of a survey made to determine the opinion of residents in Narberth and vicinity as to the quality of the Borough's stores and services.

However, Ralph Dunne, chairman of the survey committee, failed to attend the meeting and the other committee members had no information on the results. It was suggested that since the Christmas season was so busy, it would be difficult for the merchants to do anything about improving conditions and it would therefore be better to postpone discussion of the survey until after the holidays.

Roger Burke, Council president, urged all members to make a special effort to keep their store fronts and the sidewalks as clean and tidy as possible and said he understood failure to do so was one of the criticisms most frequently voiced by persons answering the survey questionnaire.

Library Board Draws Up Budget

Hope Appropriations Will Reach $5000

The Narberth Library Board Monday night prepared a tentative budget for next year, based on a total hoped-for appropriation of $5000.

The board will ask Borough Council to appropriate $4000, the same sum requested this year, and the School Board $1000.

This year, the Borough gave the library $2500 and the School Board upped its usual $400 appropriation to $1000.

"If this sum is available," a spokesman said after the meeting, "we will be able to provide the people of Narberth with a more complete selection of the books which they want and expect to find in their public library."

The board will appoint a nominating committee at the next meeting in December and trustees will be elected at the January meeting which is open to the public. The library is managed by a board of 12 trustees including a representative from Borough Council and the Burgess who serves as an ex-officio member.

It was reported at the meeting Monday that several persons had volunteered to take the leaders' training course at the Free Library in Philadelphia in preparation for launching a Great Books program under the sponsorship of the Narberth Library.

Narberth Cub Pack to Sponsor Bake Sale

A sale of home-made cakes, pies and pastries will be held by Cub Pack No. 212 of the Narberth Boy Scouts Saturday morning at the Sun Cleaner Store, Haverford Ave., opposite Narberth Station.

The sale will begin at 9 A. M. and will be in charge of Mrs. Stanton L. Nelson, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Roy Eberly and Mrs. G. O. Fletcher. Proceeds of the sale will benefit Cub Pack activities.

Looking Back in Our Town

Thirty Years Ago This Week:

Narberth celebrated the signing of the Armistice. The Fire Company made a "Paul Revere" dash up and down the Borough streets at 3 A. M. on November 11, followed by Doc Howard and Mrs. Howard in their own "buzz wagon."

A day-long celebration on November 12 was climaxed by a parade of the Home Guard in the evening and speeches from the balcony of the old Y.M.C.A. building.

Twenty Years Ago This Week:

Luther Parsons was re-elected for his 13th term as president of the Lower Merion Society for the Recovery of Stolen Horses and the Detection of Horse Thieves, at the society's 91st annual banquet.

Borough Council cut the tax rate from 20 to 19 mills.

The Borough's drinking water received a "clean bill of health" from the Lower Merion Township Board of Health following a water scare.

Ten Years Ago This Week:

A "borough landmark"—Miss Posey's Boarding House—changed hands and became the Windsor Essex Inn.

The Harold D. Speakman Post of the American Legion held its annual Armistice Day banquet.

Charles Fanslow Leads Kiwanis

Officers Elected at Meeting on Tuesday

Charles Fanslow, of Ardmore, was elected President of the Main Line Kiwanis Club at the club's annual election meeting Tuesday evening at the Conestoga Mill, Bryn Mawr. He had previously served as vice-president.

Also elected to serve terms of one year were: James McIntyre, vice-president; Edward J. Hogan, secretary and treasurer; and the following directors: Clarence K. Beatty, John F. Christie, Jr., Charles S. Cobb, James M. Hart, Paul J. Lawless, John J. McDermott and Thomas T. Willis.

A U. S. Army film titled "Operation Crossroads" based on the Bikini Atoll atom bomb tests was shown. Officers will be installed on January 4.

Bird Lovers Will Meet This Friday

Election of Officers Heads Agenda

The Lower Merion Bird Lovers Association will meet this Friday at 8 P. M. in the township building, Ardmore, according to Barney Fischer, one of the prime movers in the organization of this group.

Purpose of the meeting will be to elect officers and directors and adopt by-laws as drawn up by a committee comprising E. E. Burlingame, James Henderson, L. A. Eppinger and Guy Corman. It is also hoped to arrange for the establishment of several bird sanctuaries in the township.

Representatives of women's clubs, civic organizations, schools, colleges and Scout troops are expected to attend the meeting, Fischer said, and bird lovers generally are invited. Speakers will include J. A. Fowler, of the Academy of Natural Sciences, and Samuel Bunting, a Boy Scout Commissioner. Pictures on bird life will be shown.

PATROLMAN HURT

Lower Merion Township patrolman John A. Boyd, 42, suffered a crushed left toe Friday night when his foot was caught under a gas station automobile lift at Levering Mill Rd. and Montgomery Ave., Cynwyd. Boyd, who lives at 131 Grandview Rd., Ardmore, was treated at Bryn Mawr Hospital.

Exchange Teacher Addresses PTA At Boro School

Miss E. Lucille Noble Discusses the English Education System

The experiences of an American school teacher in England was the subject of a talk Monday evening at the Narberth Parent-Teachers' Association at the Narberth School.

Miss E. Lucille Noble, who is at present teaching Latin at Upper Darby Senior High School, told the group of the time she spent in England as one of a group of 73 Americans chosen as exchange teachers. Miss Noble spent two years, 1946-47, at Colston's Girls' School in Bristol.

Higher education, she explained, is a privilege very limited to women in England. The child's school life starts at the age of five when he enters a type of kindergarten school. At seven and one-half years of age he enters a junior school and at 11 years he has the choice of three types of future education, the secondary modern school, the technical school and the grammar school, the last of which prepares him for entrance to English universities. Only about 15 percent choose the latter course, the remaining 85 percent choosing one of the first two.

After seven years of study in the grammar school a pupil is examined for entrance to a university.

In speaking of the meager supplies of the British people, Miss Noble told the audience that many of the classrooms were often at a 38 degree temperature during the winter months because of the lack of fuel.

In December of 1946 Miss Noble was one of a group of exchange teachers who attended a tea at the home of Lady Astor, at which they were presented to Queen Elizabeth. She returned to this country in August, 1947.

The session was opened with an invocation delivered by the Rev. Robert J. Lamont, pastor of the Narberth Presbyterian Church, G. Ogil, Fletcher, 1st. vice-president, presided at the business meeting which preceded the program.

Speaker at the business session was Miss Natalie Pollock, Narberth Public Health Nurse, who described the services available to Borough residents through public nursing. Music for the evening was furnished by Alfred C. Lohmann, concert singer, of Haverford. Lochmann, a member of the American Opera Company, was accompanied by James Ervine, of Narberth, at the piano.

A committee under the direction of Mrs. Richard T. Smith, was in charge of the social hour which followed the program.

Child Injured In Front of Home

2-Year-Old Darts Into Street in Oakmont

Two-year-old Philip Stringer remained in a serious condition today at Delaware County Hospital as a result of being struck by an automobile in front of his home, 2119 Oakmont road, Oakmont.

Haverford Township police said the boy darted from the sidewalk into the street directly into the path of a car driven by Mrs. Martha McCulley, 1813 Belvedere Ave., Oakmont. The woman was unable to stop the car in time to avoid hitting him.

Philip was driven to the hospital by his mother, Mrs. Harry S. Stringer, and Charles Gallagher, a postman who was making deliveries at the time of the accident.

Hospital authorities said the child was suffering from head injuries and contusions of the lower part of the body, particularly about the legs.

Mrs. E. H. Rakestraw Is Granted a Divorce

Mrs. Edward Hyde Rakestraw, of 312 Brentford Rd., Haverford, was granted a divorce Thursday at Norristown.

The decree, in an action started last June 7 on ground of indignities, was handed down by Montgomery County Judge William F. Dannehower.

Rakestraw is a Philadelphia cotton yarns broker. Mrs. Rakestraw is the former Miss May Therese Groves. They were married in October, 1931.

VMSC Asquires New Oxygen Equipment

The Volunteer Medical Service Corps of Narberth has acquired a regulator mask, a new type of oxygen equipment, it was announced this week. Purchase of the mask was authorized at a meeting last Wednesday and it is already prepared for use if needed.

The annual dinner of members of the Corps was held Wednesday evening at the Wynnewood House.

Main Line Nears Halfway Point in Best Campaign

Overbrook Leads With 78.5 Percent of Quota Collected

The Main Line districts in the Red Feather drive edged toward the fifty percent mark in collections this week, with the official close of the campaign only two weeks away.

Biggest single gain during the past week was accomplished by the Bryn Mawr district, headed by Charles J. Hepburn, Jr., who received an award for his area.

The Narberth district of the Main Line Division in the Red Feather drive was newly organized this year and was late in getting started. As a result, only 9.8 percent of the Borough's $6200 quota has been turned in to date, it was reported at Tuesday's report luncheon. Leaders expressed the belief, however, that the Borough would reach its goal.

achievements at Tuesday's report luncheon. Bryn Mawr has now raised 55.4 percent of its $24,000 quota.

Leading all the local districts to date is Overbrook, headed by Mrs. George S. Munson, where 78.5 percent of the $30,000 quota has been pledged.

The score in other districts was reported Tuesday as follows: Haverford, 58.9 percent; Merion, 52.9 percent; Wynnewood, 50.1 percent; Merion Park, 49.4 percent. The Bala-Cynwyd division as a whole has subscribed 47.1 percent of its $19,100 quota, with no report from the Ashland or Bala districts which have quotas of $300 and $3000 respectively.

The overall status of the Main Line division from Overbrook through Ardmore is 49.5 percent of the $104,200 goal and of the Haverford through Villanova division 46.1 percent of its allotted $90,700. Officials of the campaign, speaking at the report luncheon, pointed out that rising costs of living, a major factor in this year's increased over-all quota, make it absolutely imperative that all quotas should be passed with at least 10 percent to spare. Otherwise, they said, vital health and welfare services for the coming year will have to be curtailed.

Rites Held For Haim Brothers

Military Service for Brothers Killed in War

Military funeral services were held Sunday afternoon for Lieutenants Gordon and Stanley Haim, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haim, of 146 Union Ave., Bala-Cynwyd, who were killed in widely separated areas of the European theater.

The services were held at the funeral home of Morris Rosenberg and Son's, Philadelphia, with burial at Mt. Lebanon Cemetery.

Gordon, then 24, a member of the Fifth Army, was killed in 1944 in Palermo, Italy. Stanley, who was 22, a member of the Eighth Air Force, was killed on his 23rd mission over Germany. The brothers' bodies were returned to this country two weeks ago.

Members of 22 Jewish War Veterans' Posts and other veterans' organizations acted as color guards at the service. The Haim-Parnes Post No. 295, named for the brothers, provided the firing squad.

Borough Official Sixth Man to Get Coveted Honor

Presentation Made at Armistice Banquet; McConnell Speaker

George B. Suplee, veteran Borough official and a resident here for 50 years, was chosen as this year's recipient of the Harold D. Speakman Post's Distinguished Service Award.

The award was announced and presented at the post's annual Armistice Day banquet, held last Thursday night at Wynnewood House, and attended by 110 persons. The presentation was made by Guy Mosteller, commander of the post.

Suplee, who lives at 315 Woodside Ave., Narberth, is superintendent of public works—which means he's health officer, plumbing inspector, building inspector, health officer and secretary of the board of health. He has been a Borough official for 29 years.

The citation presented to Suplee reads: "This certificate is awarded to George B. Suplee in recognition of district service rendered Harold D. Speakman Post No. 356 of the American Legion, Narberth."

It is signed by the department commander and adjutant and by Mosteller and Claude Watters, Jr., Post Adjutant.

The award has been given by the Speakman Post only five times before. It is not given every year, but only when the Post considers it warranted. Previous recipients were the late Dr. King, John J. Cabrey, "Doc" Howard, Carl Metzger, Sr., and the late Theodore Dold.

Program speaker at the banquet was Montgomery County Commissioner Samuel K. McConnell, Jr., of Wynnewood, who discussed the infiltration of the Communist doctrine in our educational system. He was introduced by commander Douglas Miner, who acted as master of ceremonies.

Vocal selections were made by Miss Evelyn Fleck, soprano. Among the guests of honor was Herbert M. Walker, Commander of the Ninth District of the American Legion. Responsible for the success of the banquet was a committee headed by William Clippsham and Harold Nordblum.

Narberth School Notes

By KATHRYN NELSON

Friday, November 12, was Honor Day in assembly. There were six students from the sixth grade, 10 from the seventh, and 10 from the eighth grade on the Honor Roll. To complete the program Mr. Joseph Gross showed us a movie on the Community Chest Campaign which is now in progress. A short movie starring Bud Abbott and Lou Costello.

Next week throughout the school we will have a Community Chest drive.

Many things are beginning to happen as the holidays approach. The Christmas play has gotten underway. Tryouts were given for parts this week by Miss Mabel Hunsicker.

The chorus has been rehearsing for the Christmas season also. They will sing a number of selections with the play.

The Home Economics Class under Miss Agnes Taylor's direction will start making Christmas presents for their parents in their sewing class.

C. Carey's play, "On the Bookshelf," we are glad to say, will be presented in assembly on November 19. We know it will be a very big success.

Wynnewood Civic Elects Officers

John W. Dawson, Jr., of 415 Coitswood Lane, Wynnewood, was elected president of the Wynnewood Civic Association at its annual meeting, attended by more than 150 persons, Tuesday evening at the Merion Cricket Club. Dawson had previously served as an associate director and as chairman of the zoning committee.

The following board members were also named at the meeting: Lester W. Minchin, vice-president; Edward M. Mann, secretary; Frank J. Fogarty, treasurer; William H. Hutzman, Jr., assistant secretary, and Herbert K. Ball, assistant treasurer. Directors for one, two and three year terms were also elected.

A meeting to appoint committee chairmen will be held next week.

Vocational Service Day At Rotary Club

A Vocational Service program featuring a talk by Charles Hoelrich of Bala-Cynwyd, assistant cashier of the Philadelphia National Bank, was presented at the meeting Tuesday of the Bala-Cynwyd Narberth Rotary Club.

Lower Merion Police Ask $500 Raise Next Year

Tell Commissioners Boost Imperative to Meet Living Costs

Lower Merion Township police commissioners for a blanket $500 raise in 1949.

In a letter presented at Wednesday night's meeting of the board, the patrolmen pointed out that the amount was necessary to enable them to meet current living costs.

Figures released by the Bureau of Labor Statistics in Washington show that living costs have risen 8.9 percent above last year and 77 percent above the August, 1939, level, the letter stated.

The request for a $500 blanket increase is in line with action being taken by most police groups throughout the state. The Fraternal Order of Police in Pennsylvania recently voted to ask the 1949 session of the State Legislature to enact legislation making $3600 a minimum wage for Grade A patrolmen in cities and first-class townships.

At present a Grade A patrolman in Lower Merion receives $3150 a year.

The patrolmen's request was tabled for consideration in January when the 1949 budget is drawn up by the commissioners.

Playhouse Lists Production Cast

"Two Mrs. Carrolls" to Be Staged Dec. 10-11

The Main Line Playhouse announced this week that their second production, "The Two Mrs. Carrolls," will be presented two nights, December 10 and 11, at the Lower Merion High School.

A newcomer to Playhouse productions, Mrs. William B. Johnson, of Kirklyn, will play the leading role of Sally in the famous mystery drama. Mrs. Johnson has had a wealth of stage experience and is a prominent member of the Hathiaway Shakespeare and Phalanx Clubs, Leonard Valenta, who acted with the American National Theatre and Academy in New York last season and is widely known for his radio, television and dramatic work, will star as Geoffrey. Mrs. John S. Carver, of Cynwyd, directs.

At the monthly meeting of the Main Line Playhouse held last Tuesday evening, the Workshop Group presented the one-act comedy, "If the Shoe Pinches." Starring in the roles were Mrs. Peggy Chandler, Mrs. Robert Dembergh, Miss Frances Flint and Mrs. Albert Kane. The production was directed by Mary Evans.

School Directors Adopt Rules

Sets January 7 for Return of Bids

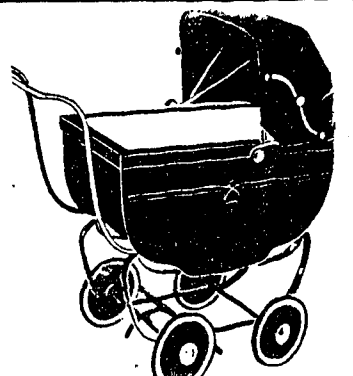

Lower Merion school directors Monday night set in motion the machinery necessary to launch the district's first postwar expansion project.

Backed by the voters' overwhelming approval of the proposed $2,950,000 bond issue, the directors adopted a resolution setting forth details of the financial arrangements.

Proceeds of the bond issue will be used to erect an elementary school in Penn Valley, build an addition to the Penn Wynne School and a new cafeteria in the Lower Merion Senior High School.

Deadline for bids on the bond issue was set as January 7, 1949, when the bids will be opened and an award made if any bid is found desirable. It is expected that the money will be obtainable at an interest rate of somewhere between one-half of one percent and two percent.

The directors also ruled that the bonds be serial and non-callable and that payments of principal extend over 25 years, the first payment to be made in 1950.

THINKING OUT LOUD

Copyright 1948 by CHARLES A. WRIGHT
Our Happy Anniversary

When the phone rang, we were in the tub, enjoying the luxury of a hot bath before going to bed. So we weren't happy to hear it ring. The telephone in our house is in the second floor hallway, handy enough to the bath room, but we hated to get out of the warm water, and besides the phone calls are never for us.

That's why we waited until the Little Woman said: "I'll answer it" and relaxed as we heard her come up the stairs. But to her surprise, as well as to ours, the call was for us, so she shoved the phone in around the door and went down stairs while we dried our hands and hoped we wouldn't get an electric shock. We've read about people being killed in that way.

On the phone was the Boss Lady, who said she had been trying to reach us all evening to read us a telegram.

JUDGES OF PENNSYLVANIA WEEK EDITORIAL CONTEST HAVE AWARDED YOU FIRST PRIZE. CONGRATULATIONS. LITTLE FOLLOWS, ORUS J. MATTHEWS SECRETARY OF COMMERCE.

It was a great occasion for us to have made a significant remark. So we thought deeply and said: "Oh boy!"

Thoughts raced through our head like the water circulating around our toes. We told the Boss Lady we had been out to dinner and had returned only a few minutes before; that's why she had been unable to reach us. And if we remembered rightly the prize was $200.

The Boss Lady expressed surprise that we didn't rush to break the good news to the Little Woman and we were too embarrassed to tell her that we couldn't rush off anywhere because our only covering was the slowly cooling water in the tub.

Maybe someday we will become accustomed to winning things and will be able to take such news calmly, but that happy day hasn't arrived. One of our first acts, after getting into some clothes and breaking the news to Our Favorite Wife, was to send messages to the boy and girl at college. After that we began phoning all our friends.

We like to share our good news with friends, because they seem to get as much enjoyment out of it as we do. And in the present case, we owe our good fortune to the friends of this column, whose kind remarks have encouraged us to do our best.

This week marks the first anniversary of the "Thinking Out Loud" column and writing it has been our most pleasant occupation of the past year. A columnist gets to wondering if anybody reads his stuff, and then one reader writes in and another calls up and another speaks to him on the street and he feels that he is doing more than just filling up a bit of space.

There was the lady who asked: "Where did you get that story about Schueneman's candy store?"—it turned out that she had bought candy there as a child—and the lady who enjoyed the article about our hobbies and the lady and gentleman who wrote in when we offered to give away our fish bowl. And the druggist who said our article "Where We Live" was one of the best things he had ever read and the shoe store man who said he was amused by our comments on our lack of a car. And, among others, the man who bought an extra paper containing the article about our bus ride and the man who not only renewed his subscription but also ordered an extra subscription so his son in New England could read our musings.

The people who write: "I liked such-and-such an article, but I didn't like this-or-that" are equally helpful. For such comments are of value in deciding the policies of the column, to such extent as policies are desirable.

One of our discoveries has been that the column one reader likes least may be the one somebody else likes best. And we have long believed that a column that goes on week after week, dealing with the same range of subjects and treating them all in the same style, no matter how well written, soon becomes monotonous. Generally you'll find our stuff light and airy, but once in a while you'll find it serious; occasionally it is a bit subtle, but more often it is not; sometimes our topics are local, but often they cover a wider scope.

The composite will give you a pretty good picture of us and we hope it will give a reasonably good picture of you. We know that ours is not the only family in which the husband keeps dodging the little odd jobs and in which the wife keeps reminding him of them. And we know that ours is not the only family in which, despite friendly hickering back and forth, the husband and wife are united in their love for each other and their children. We know that ours is not the only family that is proud to live in the suburbs and proud of the opportunities that America offers.

So if yours is that kind of family, this column is about you, and we are delighted when you send in your comments. As we said earlier, you helped us win the $200. If you come around to the house, we'll let you see a photograph of the check. We hope you won't be surprised that the original check has disappeared so quickly.

Lankenau Buys 92-Acre Site for Medical Center

Overbrook Golf Club Sells Course

Lankenau Hospital will build a large modern hospital on the grounds of the Overbrook Golf Club, at City Line and Lancaster Ave., it was disclosed this week.

Purchase by the hospital of the 92-acre tract, now owned by the golf club, was announced by the hospital trustees and by Harris & Bunting, Merion realtors who represented the club in the sale. The price was $500,000.

Not included in the purchase is the clubhouse itself which is owned

In February of this year, the Overbrook Golf Club site was purchased by a group of investors represented by Kniskern-Breen-Voorhees, Inc., and G. M. B. Watts, both of Philadelphia. The buyers planned to build homes and an apartment development on the tract.

However, the property is located in an R-2 zone which requires 10,000 square feet for each home and does not permit apartments. As a result, the plans were dropped. The zoning classification permits use of the property for a hospital, provided a special exception is granted by the Lower Merion Board of Zoning Adjustment.

by the Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary and leased by the golf club.

Necessary funds for the construction of the new hospital will be raised, according to a hospital spokesman, through public subscription.

No date has been set for launching the fund drive or for the actual hospital construction. Pending further developments, the golf club will continue to use the tract as a golf course.

Lankenau Hospital has operated for more than 88 years at its present location, Girard and Corinthian Aves., Philadelphia. Decision to build a modern hospital in a new location was influenced by two factors. In 1946, a survey of hospital facilities in the Philadelphia area by the engineering firm of Ford, Bacon & Davis, Inc., resulted in recommendations that the main hospital buildings at Lankenau, some of them 60 years old, be replaced with modern structures. Secondly, there are 14 hospitals located within a radius of one mile from Lankenau's present site.

On the other hand, Lower Merion Township now has but one hospital—Bryn Mawr—and there are no hospitals near the proposed Overbrook site. Thus the hospital will be in a position to serve sections of West Philadelphia and Delaware County as well as eastern Montgomery County.

Tentative building plans call for a general hospital of modern design with a 300-bed capacity.

In developing plans for the new institution, a hospital spokesman said, special emphasis will be given to the hospital's role as a community health center, with complete facilities for the practice of preventive medicine and for the treatment of out-patients. In addition, there will be provided facilities for continuation of Lankenau's cancer research and for extension of scientific and clinical research in other fields.

Armistice Day Ceremony

losses to Northeast, Ridley Township and Chester. Radnor has won five and lost to Norristown, Haverford, Downingtown and Abington. The Raiders' last loss was by 19-7 to Abington, Friday.

Tie for 'A' Title

Chester's 7-6 triumph proved costly to Lower Merion not alone in injuries suffered. It marked the Clippers' first win over the Merionites since their series opened in 1942, and prevented the locals from winning outright possession of the new Group "A" title. Instead, Lower Merion must share it with Chester and Abington.

Lower Merion marched 80 yards in the second period with the tying touchdown against Chester. Joe Callahan connecting with Ryder for 20 yards and a score. But Don Shaver's usually accurate placement went wide and that ultimately meant the ball game.

This week has been a big one at L. M., what with all the preparations for Saturday's annual Radnor game, which will wind up the current football season. A short rally was held Monday to outline plans for the week. Posters with "Beat Radnor" motifs began dotting the halls early in the week, and on Thursday the entire student body appeared gaily bedecked in tags bearing the slogan "Rip Radnor's Rompers."
Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock a rally will be held in the Downs Gym and the big climax will come Friday night with the traditional bonfire when an emblem symbolizing Radnor will be burned atop a huge fire. Saturday noon Students will assemble in the gym to give the team a rousing send-off, and then chartered buses will proceed to Villanova Stadium, scene of the game.
The Boys Hi-Y recently held its annual election of members, when 16 new members were chosen. Selected on the basis of reasons for joining, interest and general character, they are:
Clem Rosenberger, Donald Pulcifer, Bill Garber, Garth Parker, Tom Little, Ray Chadwick, Bill Read, Nick Santoleri, Russell Graham, Bill Stockton, Fred Hargadon, John Sargent, Bob Rush, Dale Steinmetz, Peter Hearn and Bob Combe. They were formally initiated into the organization during the club's regular meeting Wednesday.

Not all Lower Merion activities are confined to the students. Early this month the teachers did a bit of frolicking on their own. Straw hats, dungarees and plaid shirts were the order of the evening, as faculty members staged a square dance to music on records. Another enjoyable phase of the evening were the refreshments which included cider, ginger snaps, home-made cake, nuts and candy.
Several more Lower Merion clubs, among them the Red Cross, Rifle and Riding Clubs, have recently elected new officers.
Those chosen by the Red Cross Club are Margie McKeone, president; Mary Jane Cox, secretary, and Barbara Mott, treasurer.
Officializing as president of the Rifle Club will be Bob MacNally, with vice president George Reiman; secretary, Francis McPherson, and treasurer, Henry Hopkins, as his assistants.
Newly elected officers of the Riding Club are Janet Seaman, president; Libby Hunt, vice president,

Playoffs Open For Main Line Football Title

Preliminary playoffs in the Main Line Football League will get underway this Sunday afternoon when Radnor meets Overbrook Ivy at Wayne and Havertown plays host to Eagles Local at Berwyn, at Veterans' Park field in Brookline.

As the regular league season concluded last week, Bryn Mawr battled Gladwyne to a 0-0 draw, Ivy upset Maple-Newton on a pass, 6-0, and Radnor rallied in the closing minutes to nose out Eagles, 25-0.

Radnor's victory, resulting from one of the wildest games in league history, enabled the Wayne team to clinch first place with five victories and one loss (7-6 to Ivy). Eagles, going down to their first defeat, tied Ivy for second place with four wins, one tie and a loss.

Havertown, although idle last Sunday, was already assured of fourth and a playoff place with four victories and two defeats. Eagles appeared well on their way to an easy win over Radnor, carving out a 13-0 first half lead when Wilson scored on a 20-yard pass from Dick Townsend and Earl Metzler went over from the seven following a Radnor fumble.

Both teams faltered in the third quarter, but there still was no indication that Radnor was about to catch fire. De Felice scored for Wayne on an end run, while Townsend tallied for the Eagles.

In the fourth quarter, Moon Mullin broke loose on a 27-yard run to shave Eagles' margin to 20-13. De Felice smashed over from the 10 in the last couple minutes and, with only 30 seconds remaining, Al Dominick passed to Al Smith, who raced 30 yards with the winning touchdown.

L. M. Veterans Move Into Lead For Basketball League Title Race

By HARRY ELLSWORTH

The Lower Merion Veterans moved to the head of the Main Line Basketball League this week, with Narberth and Yeadon standing a mere step behind the unbeaten Vets.

Lower Merion spilled Jenkins, 63-55, Monday night, for their third win, while Norristown nipped Narberth, 52-49, and Yeadon made it two in a row by topping Cheltenham, 61-56.

Thus the stage was set for the meeting between Lower Merion and Yeadon at Lower Merion High School Wednesday night. The Vets have shown that they are the team to beat, while Yeadon, after its manhandling at the hands of Narberth, has bounced back to down Coatesville and Cheltenham and jump into contention for first place.

Composed mainly of ex-Yeadon High stars, the Eagles feature Conrad "Billy" Mackel, former Penn player, Mackel's 19 points led Yeadon against Coatesville in their upset 48-44 win. Dan Gehring, Bob Perry, Joe Reese and Irv Amatrnick are other Yeadon standouts.

The Vets, victors over Coatesville, Cheltenham and Jenkins, will show their galaxy of former Lower Merion stars, including the blond bomber, Don Evans; Dick Whiting, Harry Middleton, Harry Desota and Bill Koehler. DeSota scored 420 points in the league last year.

Cheltenham, formerly called Elkins Park, has two tough games this week. The Chelts, who opened their season with a win over Norristown at the Arena, visit im-proved Wayne on Monday and play the 10 in the last couple minutes and, with only 30 seconds remaining, Al Dominick passed to Al Smith, who raced 30 yards with the winning touchdown.

Lower Merion Veterans will play an exhibition game with the crack New York Renaissance Friday night, November 19, at Lower Merion High School. The Rens, world professional colored champions, will also meet Coatesville later in the season.

SPORTS SCENE

By BOB JOHNSTON

Ordinarily, a long, apparently endless string of figures, forbidding in appearance and inviting eye-strain to the casual reader, seems colder than a mummy's frostbitten finger. To your average sports fan, they're about as interesting as a Gallup presidential poll on Nov. 3.

But records of the Lower Merion-Radnor High football series, carefully preserved over the last half-century by Main Line historians, give a good insight into this neighborhood rivalry. One of the nation's oldest schoolboy football feuds, the series started in 1897 and still is doing business at the same old stand, 51 years later.

Lower Merion won the first game in 1897, 10-0. That same season, probably for lack of other opponents, they battled to a 0-0 in an encore encounter. That scoreless stalemate set a pattern which has been matched in six seasons since (1906, 1911, 1914, 1927, 1928 and again in 1939).

On two other occasions the Main Line eleven also ended up all even. They battled to a 16-16 draw in 1915 and 15 years later struggled to a 12-12 deadlock.

Lower Merion has emerged victorious in all three of the series' lowest-scoring games. The Ardmore Aces eked out a 5-0 triumph in 1908, squeaked through by 2-0 in 1910 and in 1936 the Merionites' wafer-thin margin again was a safety.

Most decisive margins were compiled by Radnor in 1919, when big Jules Prevost presided during the Red Raiders' 50-0 landslide, and the following year when the Raiders again poured it on, 56-0. Few of the games have been that one-sided, although Lower Merion mauled Radnor, 51-0, in 1942, and pounded out a 56-7 win two years ago.

Neither team has been able to compile any lengthy series until Lower Merion ended it in 1908 with a 5-0 victory proving the most prolonged. Lower Merion has never been able to win more than five consecutive seasons (1932-37), although the Maltmen have humbled Radnor for the past three years and appear on the way to matching that mark.

So closely contested has been this lengthy feud that only two games separate L. M. from Radnor in the victory column. It wasn't until the Aces prevailed in 1946 that they regained the upper hand in the series, now boasting 22 triumphs to 20 for Radnor. Nine games have ended in ties.

Haverford High Gridders Gird For Clash With Upper Darby

Unable to hold off an unbeaten first period when Cialini went over West Chester team, Haverford High's gridders went down to a 20-7 defeat last Saturday in the Fords' final workout prior to the Thanksgiving Day clash with Upper Darby.

The defeat was the eighth of the season for the hapless Haverford eleven, which registered its only triumph at the expense of Radnor, 12-7. Fords gained some consolation, however, by scoring against West Chester. Previously, Haverford had been shut out in every game except the Radnor win.

West Chester, top contender for the Chester County championship, had previously won seven games and battled Coatesville to a 6-6 tie. A victory over Berwyn on Thanksgiving will give West Chester the county crown.

Vince Cialini was the scoring star as West Chester rolled to touchdowns in every period but the fourth. The Zippers scored in the point.

In the second period, Cialini took giving Day clash with Upper Darby. A Haverford punt at midfield, faked a handoff to Ray Kelly and reeled 50 yards for a touchdown, outrunning the sidelines. Dick Flagg booted both extra points for West Chester.

In the third period, a poor Haverford punt rolled out on the Fords' seven and West Chester won possession. John Harris smashed into the end zone, fumbled as he crossed the goal line, and Conrad Letter had previously won seven games recovered for the invaders' touchdowns.

Haverford marched 50 yards for its fourth-period touchdown. Dick D'Agostino led the march to the end zone, fumbled as he crossed the goal line, and Conrad Letter had previously won seven games recovered for the invaders' touchdowns.

Haverford marched 50 yards for its fourth-period touchdown. Dick D'Agostino led the march to the end zone, fumbled as he crossed the goal line, and Conrad Letter had previously won seven games recovered for the invaders' touchdowns.

12 Villanova Aces In Phila. Finale

Twelve Villanova College football players will close their home playing careers when the Wildcats meet San Francisco University Saturday afternoon at Shibe Park.

Villanova, on the strength of last week's overwhelming triumph over Georgetown, is picked to tame the Californians, but they will have to halt the invaders' passing attack. San Francisco averaged 200 yards a fourth in the nation in that department.

Four backs and eight linemen are included in the group of Villanova seniors. The contest will not be the final appearance in Villanova because the Main Lineers close their season against North Carolina State at Raleigh on November 27.

When the 1949 campaign opens Coach Jordan Olivar will miss such standouts as Quarterbacks Bill Doherty, Andy Gordon; halfbacks Bob Polidor and Al Schmidt. The departing linemen are Ed Berrana, Frank Kane, John Sheahan, ends; Lou Forry, Bob Riley, tackles; Joe Scarelli, guard, and Milt Komarnicki, Sol Yannelli, centers.

All the above players have won varsity letters under Olivar. Doherty, Forry, Scarelli and Komarnicki are rounding out their fourth season of varsity play because they were eligible under the freshman rule in 1945.

Sphas' Five at Arena

The Harlem Globetrotters, famous Negro basketball troupe, will stop off in Philadelphia during their Eastern tour to meet the Philadelphia Sphas in the windup of a double-header at the Philadelphia Arena, Tuesday, November 30.

The FOUNTAIN of YOUTH

Life! Youth! Vigor! That was the alluring and beckoning vision that led Ponce de Leon on . . . through the dangerous and unknown land that we call Florida.

Broken in health from his campaign in Porto Rico, this famous Spanish explorer and conqueror eagerly sought, in 1512, the fabulous fountain of magical water that the Indians said was hidden away in this savage and unknown land.

But Ponce de Leon never found his "Fountain of Youth" . . . which, literally translated, means "Life-Giving Water."

Today, however, we can actually enjoy a "Fountain of Youth" such as Ponce de Leon never dreamed of . . . an endless supply of pure, safe, drinking water, which is, indeed "life-giving" . . . because, without water, there can be no life, trees, plants, vegetables, animals or human beings.

Think of the ease and convenience of turning a tap in your home and getting a plentiful supply of life-giving water . . . all the water you want . . . twenty-four hours a day . . . without the slightest effort on your part.

This is the twelfth of a series of narratives which graphically tell the story of water. The next one will appear in the near future.

Thanksgiving

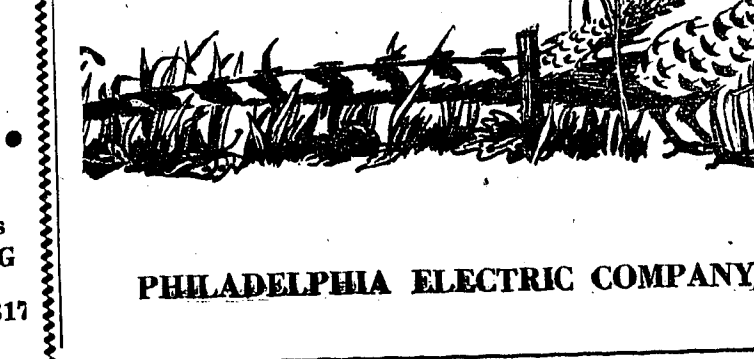

Lord God, we give Thee thanks this day,
Humbly, in our simple way,
For all the gracious gifts which Thou
Hast deigned so richly to endow—
For life—for every passing minute—
For this, Thy world, and all things in it!

We give Thee thanks, dear Lord, for these—
The green beneficence of trees,
The kindness of rain, the birth
Of springtime from a barren earth—
The earth that bears the bread we break
In gratitude for Thy sweet sake.

We thank Thee, Lord, for healing ings,
For courage, wise and tall and strong;
For all the laughter and the tears
That mold the pattern of our years;
For truth and trust and constancy,
For faith that lets us lean on Thee!

We give Thee thanks for ears to hear,
For feet to tread Thy pathways here,
For hands to touch, and lips to sing
Thy name in every lovely thing—
For friendship with our fellow men—
But mostly for Thy love.

AMEN

Episcopal Wins Interac Crown

Episcopal Academy clinched the Interac League football championship for the second straight year on Friday, defeating Penn Charter, 14-0, at the City Line field.

Coach John Orsi's eleven scored in each of the first two periods. It was Episcopal's seventh straight triumph this season, following an opening 8-6 loss to John Bartram.

Haverford School captured second place in the final standings by beating Germantown Academy, 6-0, in the Main Line's final game at Haverford. The locals scored the game's only touchdown in the second period after Dick Bremiller recovered a fumbled punt at midfield. Fred Gieg, Jr., went over from the one.

Episcopal packed most of its scoring punch in a 45-yard first period drive which ended with Buddy Wetherill ripping over from the three. Wayne Hurtubise passed to Ken Smith in the end zone for the other score.

Haverford Plays Garnet Eleven

The Haverford College-Swarthmore football series will be renewed this Saturday afternoon at Haverford's Walton Field when the ancient rivals meet for the 39th time.

The series dates back to 1879, with Haverford winning 13 of the 38 games played. Swarthmore's Little Quakers captured 23 previous games, against only two ties. Haverford won by 13-0 last year.

Haverford, in its final tune-up for the traditional game, rallied to score a 21-7 triumph over Susquehanna University last Saturday before 1,500 on the Main Line field.

Ted Test, fleet fullback, led the Hornets to victory with two touchdowns in the third quarter. Test broke loose for a 63-yard jaunt after his mates had moved the ball from their own 20 to the 37. He sprinted 32 yards for his second six-point.

She heard a neighbor lift the phone. The click was very clear. And so she signed off presently. Now wasn't she a dear?

On party-line telephones, courtesy pays dividends! Be brief... Space calls... Hang up gently... Take the lead in good party-line manners. It will mean better service for all.

Autocar Rifle Club Loses Third Straight

The Autocar Rifle Club dropped their third straight match Wednesday, November 10-4, to the Doylestown Rifle Club at Doylestown.

Two additional members of the local club, W. T. Emrey, of Lancaster, and H. Czarnecki, of Haverford, turned out for the match. Ted Shank, of Rosemont; George Morgan, of Narberth; Bill May, of Ardmore; Ed Peltit, of South Ardmore; Norman Yoder, of Lancaster; Bill Batts, of Upper Darby, and Ben Rylah, of Manoa, also competed for the local club.

The next scheduled league match will be November 22 at Frankford Arsenal.
